

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

Request for Qualifications – Architects BOGLE PARK RENOVATION AND EXPANSION

The University of Arkansas Fayetteville, in accordance with the policies of the Board of Trustees, is soliciting responses from qualified architects for the Bogle Park renovation and expansion.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Bogle Park was built in 2008 as the new home of Razorback Softball. Its construction was made possible by a gift of Bob and Marilyn Bogle, and was officially named in their honor in October 2009. The park is nestled into the hillside leading from Mullins Creek up to Stadium Drive, and has an entrance concourse that creates a striking view of the field as one enters the stadium. The seating bowl provides space for around 1200 fans in chairback seats, and a large grass outfield area stretching along the hillside provides more space for informal viewing. The team areas under the concourse include locker rooms and a small training room. A separate indoor practice building is currently configured for batting and pitching.

This project will transform the indoor practice building by adding around 21,000sf of space. An initial programming study¹ envisions better amenities for the home team, including a larger locker room, team lounge, clubhouse, and training room. Other new spaces include coaches' offices, equipment storage and back-of-house spaces, as well as larger public restrooms. The remainder of the park will be lightly renovated to refresh public areas such as ticketing and concessions, along with the upper-level suites.

The park sits within a tightly-constrained site, and the proposed addition must fit within the boundary of the west walk, which doubles as a fire lane. The selected team will be challenged to create additional space in a way that retains and enhances the visual importance of the public entrance and concourse.

The total project cost is currently estimated at $10-15 million. Architects and consultants will work with a university building committee, an independent third-party commissioning agent, and Facilities Management to advance campus master planning and design principles, as well as sustainability requirements.
